

GRAZING 101

WORKSHOP SERIES

All sessions begin at 6 p.m. w/ dinner
included

This interactive educational event is designed for beginner-graziers and for those seeking to make changes to their current feeding/grazing strategies. The goal of this series is to develop farm specific management plans that focus on forage production, stored feeds, nutrient management, etc.

Date	Topics	Location
March 3 rd	Grass species, Fertility & Grazing Strategies	USDA Office
April 21 st	Hay Production, Weed I.D., & Weed Management	USDA Office
June 9 th	Drought Tool Box, Pasture Scoring & Estimates	Local Farm
August 11 th	Winter Feeding Options, Toxic Plants, & Temporary Fencing	Local Farm
October 13 th	Feed Inventory, Feeding Strategies, & Animal Nutrition	USDA Office
December 1 st	Forage Management Plan for Coming Year, Future Goals, & Graduation	USDA Office

A payment of $50 will cover the entire series. Please pre-register by Monday, March 2nd, 2020 by contacting the Lee County Extension Office at (276) 546-2057 or the Daniel Boone Soil and Water Conservation District (DBSWCD) at (276) 346-0501. Write checks to the DBSWCD and mail/drop off to 32637 Main St., Jonesville, VA 24263.

We work with the people who work the land.

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer and lender.